DEPARTMENT OF KENTUCKY

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

OFFICIAL

The Constitution and By-Laws of The American Legion, Department of Kentucky, as set out herein, are in full force and effect, being the Revised Constitution and By-Laws adopted at the 103rd Annual Department Convention, Louisville, Kentucky, June 17th and 18th, 2022.

Patrick Keefe
Department Adjutant

June 2022

CONSTITUTION
THE AMERICAN LEGION
DEPARTMENT OF KENTUCKY

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in ALL Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I Name

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF KENTUCKY.

Section 2. The Headquarters of The American Legion, Department of Kentucky, shall be located at a suitable site within the confines of the Department of Kentucky as designated by the Department Convention.

ARTICLE II Nature

Section 1. The American Legion, Department of Kentucky, is a department of and subject to the jurisdiction of The American Legion as incorporated by act of Congress and hereinafter referred to as the National Organization.

Section 2. The Constitution and By-Laws of the National Organization of The American Legion are adopted and ratified as the Supreme Law of this Department.

Section 3. The American Legion, Department of Kentucky, is a civilian organization; membership therein does not affect or increase liability for military or police service. Rank does not exist in the Legion and no member shall be addressed by his/her military title in any convention or meeting of the Legion.

Section 4. The American Legion shall be absolutely nonpolitical and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

Section 5. Each member shall perform his full duty as a citizen and exercise his or her right of suffrage, but no person shall hold membership herein who attempts or advocates the overthrow of our government by force of arms, or who is politically directed by a foreign power.

Section 6. The American Legion being a democratic organization and at all times subject to the will of its members, it is hereby established and recognized that, any other provision of the Department, or Post, Constitution or By-Laws to contrary notwithstanding, the government of the Department, and each individual Post, shall be, and is, vested in the membership, which expresses its will through Department Conventions and, between Conventions, through its elected officers, and at the Post level, through its regular meetings. When a Convention is not in session, the Department Executive Committee shall be the governing authority, and when the Executive Committee is not in session, the Department Commander shall be the governing authority. Each authority subordinate to another shall perform its duties and carry out its responsibilities in accordance with the decrees and decisions established by any high authority.

ARTICLE III Organization

Section 1. The American Legion, Department of Kentucky, shall be that part of The American Legion within the State of Kentucky.

Section 2. There shall be no form or class of membership except an active membership and dues shall be paid in advance annually or for life. The American Legion of Kentucky shall not discriminate because of sex, age, race, national origin or religious preference.

Section 3. No person may be a member of more than one Post, at any one time, nor shall any member hold any elective office, at the Department level, in the American Legion, Department of Kentucky if and in the event said member shall hold any elective or appointive office in any organization composed of war Veterans nor shall any member have the position of Service Officer in any other Veterans organization while holding such office in the American Legion of Kentucky at any level.

Section 4. No person, who has been expelled by a Post, shall be admitted to membership in another Post, without the consent of the expelling Post, except where such consent has been asked for and denied by such Post, he/she may then appeal to the Executive Committee of the Department of the expelling Post for permission to be admitted to membership in another Post, and shall be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

ARTICLE IX

Department Convention

Section 1. The legislative body of this organization shall be an annual Department Convention. The date and place of each Department Convention shall be determined by a majority vote of the Department Executive Committee, as such election shall be at least two (2) years in advance.

Section 2. The Annual Convention shall be composed of Delegates and Alternates from each Post. Each Post shall be entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate, provided it shall have reported to Department Headquarters during the Convention year a paid-up membership of fifteen (15), and shall be entitled to one additional Delegate and one Alternate for each twenty-five (25) additional memberships or major fraction thereof whose dues have been received by the Department Finance Officer thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Department Convention. The vote of each Post shall be equal to the total number of Delegates to which the Post is entitled regardless of the number attending the Convention. Representation of twenty-five of the Posts authorized to attend shall constitute a quorum.

Section 3. The Delegates to the Department Convention shall be chosen by each Post from among its members in good standing at a meeting held not less than thirty (30) days before the Department Convention is convened, and said Delegates shall represent said Post at the District and Department Conventions. The vote of any absent Delegate not represented by an Alternate shall be cast by the remaining Delegates of his/her Post present at the Convention. Alternates shall have all privileges of Delegates, except the right to vote when their respective Delegates are present. In the absence of all Delegates and Alternates from any Post at the District or Department Convention, the members of said Post in good standing therein and registered and present at the Convention shall cast the vote of said Post.

Section 4. All past Department Commanders while in good standing in their respective posts shall be life delegates to all department conventions and shall be entitled to one vote.

Section 5. The Rules of Procedure of the Department Convention shall be as set forth in Robert's Rules of Order, with such modifications as may be adopted by the Convention, upon the recommendation of the Committee on Rules and Order of Business.

Section 6. No resolution, motion, or other proposal in whatever form, appropriating, directing, or authorizing the expenditure of funds, of which will directly or indirectly result in such expenditures, shall be considered and acted upon by the Department Convention, until such resolution, motion or proposal shall have been read or distributed at the Convention which is to consider same, at least twelve (12) hours prior to the vote thereon.

ARTICLE X

Delegates To The National Convention

Section 1. The Department Convention shall elect as many Delegates and Alternates from the State-at-Large as may be necessary to fill the quota of Delegates authorized by the National Organization. The Department Commander, immediate Past Department Commander, Department Service Director and Department Adjutant shall be delegates from the State-at-Large to the National Convention. The Department Commander shall be Chairman of the Delegation and the Department Adjutant shall be Secretary of the Delegation.

ARTICLE XI

BY-LAWS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION DEPARTMENT OF KENTUCKY

ARTICLE I Date and Place of Department Convention

Section 1. The dates and place for the Department Convention shall be fixed by a majority vote of the Department Executive Committee and such selection shall be at least two years in advance.

ARTICLE II Executive Committee

Section 1. Regular meetings of the Department Executive Committee shall be held on the third or fourth Saturday and Sunday at the discretion of the Department Commander, immediately following the adjournment of the Annual Department Convention, with at least seven days written notice to each Committee member, and on the third, fourth or fifth Friday, (beginning no earlier than 7:30 p.m.) and Saturday of January of each year, and any meeting not held at the prescribed time by reason of lack of quorum, or other bona fide reasons, said meeting shall be called by the Department Commander. On the written request of a majority of the voting members of the Department Executive Committee, stating the purpose thereof, the Department Commander shall call a special meeting of the Department Executive Committee. Should a single issue arise between Department Executive Committee meetings, the Department Commander may, at his/her discretion, submit the issue, clearly stated, by mail to each member of the Department Executive Committee. Upon receipt of the vote of the voting members, received in Department Headquarters, the Department Adjutant shall record the vote in the permanent records of the Department and shall retain each member's vote in the official records of the Department. The Department Adjutant shall notify each member of the Department Executive Committee as to the action taken on the issue in question. This procedure shall only be used in cases of emergency where it is indicated that the issue involved would not justify the expense of calling a special meeting of the Department Executive Committee.

Section 2. The annual Winter Conference shall be held on the third, fourth or fifth Saturday and Sunday of January, each year, immediately following adjournment of the semi-annual meeting of the Department Executive Committee.

Section 3. Notice of all meetings of the Department Executive Committee shall be mailed by the Department Adjutant to each member not less than seven (7) days prior to the meeting.

Section 4. The Department Executive Committee shall have the authority between Department Conventions as herein defined and restricted by the By-Laws.

Section 5. A majority in number of the voting members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any regular or special meeting.

Section 6. The Executive Committee shall have immediate supervision over the work of all officers and may require report from any officer at any time. The Department Finance Officer shall make a general report at each Executive Committee Meeting and the Department Adjutant shall report at each meeting on those matters which he determines should be of interest to the Committee. This report should be general in nature and should reflect the happenings within the Department which occurred since the last meeting, and which has not been previously reported.

Section 7. The expenses of the voting members of the Department Executive Committee, the Department Chaplain, the Department Sergeant-at-Arms, the Department Finance Officer, the Department Judge Advocate, the Department Historian, the Department Surgeon, the Department Media and Communications Director, Department Membership Director and Past Department Commanders from within the confines of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to regular and special meetings of the Department Executive Committee shall be paid by the Department, provided that each such person shall be recorded present at and shall faithfully remain in attendance during each meeting of the Executive Committee, except when excused by the Department Commander for a good cause.

Section 8. Action upon all motions and/or resolutions considered by the Department Executive Committee shall be done by voice unless a roll call vote is requested by a voting member. All resolutions and all motions and/or resolutions involving expenditure of funds shall be by roll call of each member; and the votes shall be recorded by name in the Executive Committee minutes.

Section 9. A copy of the minutes of each regular or special meeting of the Department Executive Committee shall be mailed to each Post Commander within sixty (60) days following adjournment of the meeting.

Section 10. The Department Executive Committee shall promptly and in good faith take any action required of it by any motion, resolution or other official act passed by the Department Convention and shall refrain in good faith from taking any action, or further action, on any matter or motion, resolution or official act that has been defeated or rejected by the Department Convention so that the Department Executive Committee will at all times observe and be subject and amenable to the precepts and policies as may be determined by the Department Convention and be in harmony at all times with its objectives in every respect.

ARTICLE III

Section 5. The Post Adjutant shall verify the eligibility of all members seeking election, and once elected shall forward a list of all elected post officers to the Department Adjutant within two weeks; and shall maintain a DD Form 214, or proof of eligibility for all post elected officers.

ARTICLE VII

District Organization and Meetings

Section 1. Each District of the Department shall hold an annual convention within the geographic confines of the District not less than 15 days nor more than 75 days prior to the convening of the Department Convention, such District Convention to be called by the District Commander within the foregoing provisions and at his/her option as to time and place. At said convention there shall be elected a district commander and not more than three district vice-commanders and one election will be held to fill those positions, If more than three nominees (or the districts designated number), the election shall continue with the nominee with the lowest number of votes being dropped until the designated number of vice-commanders remain, and they shall serve equally. There shall be elected three delegates to the National Convention and three alternate delegates to the National Convention. Said elections shall be reported by the respective district commanders immediately thereafter to the Department Adjutant who shall certify the same to the Department Convention for approval. The terms of office for the District Commanders and Vice-Commanders shall be from the last day of the Department Convention after their election until the last day of the next Department Convention."

Section 2. Each American Legion District in this Department, at the District Convention held immediately prior to the Department Convention, shall elect a member and an alternate member from the delegates to the Department Convention to serve on each of the Department Convention Committees. Each District Commander shall furnish a list of the various convention committee appointments to the Department Adjutant and shall have the right to name members of such convention committees at the Department Convention to fill any vacancy caused by a previously named member failing to appear.

Section 3. Each District Commander may appoint a District Adjutant or, in his/her discretion, may cause said District Adjutant to be elected in the same manner as provided herein for the election of other District Officers. The District Adjutant shall maintain a DD form 214, or other proof of eligibility, for each elected district officer.

Section 4. The duties of the District Commander shall be as follows: (a) to serve as a member of the Department Executive Committee, (b) to preside over all District meetings, (c) to promote American Legion Membership and other American Legion activities within the confines of his/her geographical district, (d) to make such reports as shall from time to time be required by the Department Executive Committee or Department Convention. The Department Commander may delegate to a District Vice-Commander any and all duties and authority set forth herein.

ARTICLE VIII

Monies and Collections

Section 1. All Districts, Posts and other intermediate body officials handling American Legion monies shall be properly bonded with a good and solvent bonding and surety company, as surety, to cover double the average amount of money handled in a single year. In case of delinquencies in the payment of monies due Department and National Headquarters, action shall be taken at once by the proper officials to bring about a speedy and complete settlement. The bonds provided by Department, Post and other intermediate body officials shall be approved by the Department Judge Advocate and the Department Executive Committee.

Section 2. The Department Commander or Executive Committee shall, should it be deemed advisable, detail special auditors to investigate the membership roll and financial statement of any District, Post, or other intermediate body, and all cost of said audits shall be borne by the unit whose accounts are being audited.

ARTICLE IX

Charters

Section 1. The Department Executive Committee may suspend, cancel, or revoke a Post Charter upon a proper showing of cause. The action taken by said committee shall be final and conclusive unless an appeal is taken to the National Executive Committee within thirty (30) days from the date of said suspension, cancellation, or revocation. The action taken by the National Executive Committee upon such appeal shall be final.

Section 2. Any Post failing to meet the obligations imposed upon it by this Constitution and By-Laws or ceasing to function for six months as an American Legion Post, or voluntarily ceasing to function as a Post, or merging with one or more other Posts, or refusing to pay the Department and National per capita dues, or under such other conditions as might make such action necessary shall upon order of the Department Executive Committee, surrender its charter for cancellation.

Section 3. Upon revocation, cancellation or suspension of a Post Charter, said Post shall immediately cease operations and shall turn over its charter to the Department Executive Committee which is authorized, empowered and directed by and through its duly authorized agent to take possession, custody and control of all records, property, and assets of said Posts: provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as requiring this Department to take over or assume any financial responsibility as to such property. Said action shall be taken in accordance with the uniform code provided by the National Executive Committee.

Section 4. The Uniform of Procedure for the Revocation, Cancellation or Suspension of Post Charters, as adopted by the National Executive Committee of The American Legion May 1-2, 1941, Indianapolis, Indiana, and amended by that body November 6-7, 1948, is hereby adopted and made a part of this Constitution, the same as if fully written herein.

ARTICLE X

Discipline of Post and Post Members

Section 1. Each Post of The American Legion sits in judgement of its own members in disciplinary proceedings, and has the prerogative to accept, or not, whomever is eligible, provided that the post does not refuse membership to an eligible applicant based on criterion prohibited by law, such as ethnicity, gender, age, etc.

Section 2. Each Post shall draft and adopt a Constitution and By-Laws not in conflict with the National and Department Constitutions. Said Constitutions and By-Laws shall govern the activities of the Post, and a copy of the current Constitution and By-Laws of each Post, and a copy of all amendments and changes thereto shall be forwarded to the Department Adjutant for record purposes.

Section 3. Post members may be suspended or expelled from The American Legion only upon a proper showing of cause. Charges shall be based upon disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty and conduct unbecoming a member of The American Legion. All charges must be made under oath in writing by the accusers, and no member in good standing shall lose his membership until given a trial by the Post or Department in accordance with the Uniform Code of Procedure as prescribed by the National Executive Committee. The accuser must be a member of the post Legion membership, the charges must be specific, and the procedure with the Uniform Code of Procedure as prescribed by the National Executive Committee and outlined in the Officers Guide must be exactly followed with the exception of Part IV of the established procedure; Alias Writ, that requires the Writ to be issued again and again until service is had. If after two (2) unsuccessful attempts to issue the Writ to the accuser by certified mail with the accuser refusing to sign for the delivery, the Post may assume that the accused is denying acceptance of the Writ on purpose to stop the proceedings. In such an instance, the Post must document the attempted deliveries and then may continue with the suggested procedures as written.

Section 3-a. A member who is temporarily suspended from the post social functions remains "in good standing" in the American Legion and may attend all scheduled and special meetings of the post and may not be prohibited from seeking office in the American Legion.

Section 4. A member whose dues for the current year have not been paid by January 1 shall be classed as delinquent. If his/her dues are not paid on or before February 1, he/she shall be suspended from all privileges. If he/she is still under such suspension on June 30 of such year, his/her membership in The American Legion shall be forfeited. A member so suspended or whose membership has been so forfeited may be re-instated to active membership in good standing by the vote of the Post and payment of current dues for the year in which the reinstatement occurs.

ARTICLE XI

Transfer of Membership

Section 1. A member of any American Legion Post, within or without the Department, who is in good standing in said Post, may be transferred to and admitted to full membership in any Post of the Department, upon his/her request and by and with the consent of the Post to which the Legionnaire has applied for transfer. The Department Adjutant, will supply to each Post forms to carry this By-Law into effect.

ARTICLE XII

Amendments

Section 1. These By-Laws may be amended at any Department Convention by a vote of two-thirds of the total authorized votes cast by the delegates present and voting at that particular meeting, provided that the proposed amendments shall have been submitted to Department Headquarters at least thirty (30) days prior to the convening of the next Department Convention and made available for inspection by the membership, by either publication in the Kentucky Legionnaire or by distribution in writing at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time designated for a vote on the proposed amendments. A proposed amendment may be amended without further notice by a two-thirds vote cast by the delegates present and voting at that particular meeting, provided that the proposed changes have been read to the Convention at least twelve (12) hours prior to the time scheduled for a vote thereon. Copies of all proposed By-Laws Amendments shall be made available by The Department Adjutant at the Department Convention to the Chairman and/or Secretary of each Post delegation.

ARTICLE XIII

Section 1. All words in the By-Laws in the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender.
